Hershey Felder as Irving Berlin at Pasadena Playhouse

Hershey Felder as Irving Berlin will be at the Pasadena Playhouse July 21-August 7, 2016. Hershey Felder brings to life the remarkable story of Irving Berlin, "America's Composer." From the depths of anti-Semitism in Czarist Russia to New York's Lower East Side, and ultimately all of America and the world, Berlin's story epitomizes the American Dream.

Featuring the composer's most popular and enduring songs from "God Bless America" and "Always" to "White Christmas" and beyond, Hershey's masterful creation of character and musical performance is an unforgettable journey. As Jerome Kern famously said, "Irving Berlin has no place in American music – he is American music."

Tickets to Hershey Felder as Irving Berlin can be purchased at pasadenaplayhouse.org.

Christophe Piallat: What Lies Inside, Stays Inside

The Playhouse District welcomes resident artist Christophe Piallat's "What Lies Inside, Stays Inside" at Canterbury Records Cornerstore at 805 E. Colorado Blvd. Piallat uses paper and both natural and artificial light to create stunning paper installations that are inspired by geology and nature. His installations have been exhibited internationally, and we are excited he will be in the Playhouse District through July 28. Join the Opening Reception on Thursday, July 7 at 7pm!

Learn more about the artist and photographer at christophepiallat.com.

New PDA Executive Director Brian Wallace

The Playhouse District Association is excited to announce the appointment of Brian Wallace as its new Executive Director, following a nation-wide search.

Wallace began his career nearly 20 years ago at the City of Pasadena working closely with business district organizations, including the Playhouse District Association. His experience in planning and revitalization encompasses not only Pasadena and Southern California but cities such as Chicago, Dallas and Nashville. Wallace brings skills in land-use planning, retail and business recruitment and retention, urban design, and strategic planning and organizational development. He has worked most recently as the Director of Economic Development for the Playhouse District Association, following work in Long Beach and as a consultant.

"I'm thrilled to continue to serve the Playhouse District. This is my home and where my passion is, and I look forward to working with the Board of Directors and the community to make our part of Pasadena even more dynamic and vibrant," said Wallace.
