The Madwoman in the Volvo at Pasadena Playhouse

The Madwoman in the Volvo is now open at Pasadena Playhouse. In the throes of her own mid-life change, Loh wrote an essay for the Atlantic Monthly, which later became the basis for her memoir, The Madwoman in the Volvo: My Year of Raging Hormones. She identified herself as someone who is from the "Triple M Generation—menopausal, middle-aged and a mother."

The memoir's three-character stage adaptation is a bumper-car ride through mid-life madness, all sparked by an unlikely trip to Burning Man. In addition to playwright Loh, the cast for The Madwoman in the Volvo includes Caroline Aaron and Shannon Holt.

Select Playhouse District restaurants are having special deals for ticket holders! Show your ticket at redwhite+bluezz or El Portal for up to 20% off your meal. Tickets to The Madwoman in the Volvo can be purchased at pasadenaplayhouse.org.

Tickets to the Long Table On Sale June 15!

Tickets to The Long Table: A Playhouse District Food and Wine Celebration will be available for purchase starting June 15. The Long Table is a celebration of community with a four-course sit down dinner for 300 of our friends and neighbors. The trees lining Green Street are the perfect shaded canopy to cool the summer evening. Enjoy delectable food and beverage prepared by El Portal, Roy's Hawaiian Fusion Cuisine, Braise & Crumble, Urth Caffé, and more. Early bird discounted prices available until July 15.
