Welcome to Playhouse Village

Nearly 25 years ago, a few community members had the idea to celebrate and promote the area around the iconic Pasadena Playhouse. They saw an opportunity to make it into an even more special place of culture, commerce, and community and called it the Playhouse District.

Since those early days, we have seen the area transform, drawing more people and businesses to call our neighborhood home.

Our next chapter begins as we transition from Playhouse District to Playhouse Village - your community in the heart of Pasadena.

With an achingly beautiful score, Passion delves into the mystifying tangle of desire, obsession, lust and madness that comprise love.
